Grossmont Hospital Expansion Plan Urged

More Names Listed In Retarded Project

The holidays slowed down only slightly the regularity with which area people were subscribing to this newspaper. Last week, as an example, 73 more families signed up.

In addition to receiving the newspaper for a year, part of the $4 subscription fee is being given to a landscape project at the Home of Guiding Hands in Lakeside.

The Home, which cares for retarded humans, is at 10025 Los Ranchitos rd. The Home was built by private funds and no aid was asked or given by government.

The proceeds, when handed over to the Home, will be used for purchasing plants and shrubs to complete landscape that will have cost between $35,000 and $40,000.

The 73 families whose names appear in this column this week, raises to 620 the number which has taken part since the project started several weeks ago.

THE END: Workers at the Spring Valley and at the Lemon Grove U.S. Post Offices can breathe a little bit easier now that the Christmas rush is over. During the rush, Spring Valley processed some 518,344 pieces of mail through the cancellation machine. In Lemon Grove some 530,000 parcels of mail were cancelled. Shown in the photo as a late package gets priority is Lou Paquin, a clerk at the Spring Valley Post Office. According to Postmaster William Fitzpatrick of Spring Valley, his office did not hire any extra hands during the rush, but extended hours of all workers. The same held true in the Lemon Grove Post Office according to Francis Faucher, postmaster.

SUPERVISORS DIVIDED ON PRESERVE STATUS

Daley Ranch Tax Relief Bid May Trigger More Requests

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — This county could be headed for a situation where three favored land owners enjoy the tax benefit of agricultural preserves while all other farmers are shut out.

The situation arose Monday at the board of supervisors hearing when Frank Gibson was absent and the other four members deadlocked two to two.

Gibson has said informally he favors the formation of the first three preserves which would drop assessments substantially for the Daley's Ranch of 8,000 acres, a Palomar Mountain ranch, and the 900 acres of flower growing land of Paul Ecker in Encinitas.

Robert Dent and De Graff

Austin favor the preserves, but Cozens and Henry Boney are opposed at this time.

Dent and Gibson leave the board Monday at noon to be replaced by former San Diego city councilman Harry Scheidle and Jack Walsh.

Dent, Gibson and Austin could approve the agreements and preserves Monday and it appears that the new supervisors (whose positions are not known) could not rescind the action. They could, however, help block the formation of any more preserves.

Cozens and Boney made two major points Monday. They agreed that the county just does not know the total effect on taxes of various districts and the county itself if great agricultural preserves are formed.

PUBLIC BENEFITS

The other point is that the public benefit of the preservation of farm land and open space goes far beyond district boundaries.

The board agreed to ask the state legislature for an amendment to the Land Conservation Act of 1965 permitting formation of county-wide or state-wide fund to restore tax money lost to local districts.

Boney said, "The owners of thousands of acres of land have told me they will apply for preserves if these three are approved."

In preserves, the land is assessed on the basis of farm income produced, not on the basis of market value. The Daley assessment would drop 79 per cent, as estimated by the assessor's office, and bring a very large tax saving.

Merely in the Jamul-Las Flores School District, the saving this year would have amounted to $6,411. The Daley's have agreed to restore to the district each year the difference between preserve and regular assessing.

Chairman Boney and Austin got into a talking match Monday with Austin trying to once again explain his position and Boney saying the vote had already been taken.

Boney cut Austin off by the simple move of recessing the meeting.

VALUATION TOO HIGH

Austin insists that the assessor's valuation of back country land is far too high. Oddly enough, he voted no several times on the creation of the land preservation concept, but this was because he maintained the method was entirely too complicated.

The Daley's have protested their $684,000 land only assessment, but have been informed by Assessor E. C. Williams that he, in a counter move, will seek an increase to over $1,000,000.

Program Would Set Bed Capacity At 500

By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

The board of directors at Grossmont Hospital has indicated that they will again, make a move requesting voters in the district to allow for an expansion program at the hospital. Under discussion is a plan that would expand the number of beds at the hospital from 216 to 500. The program would cost around $6 million to house the new beds.

Financing of the program is still a problem. The voters in the hospital district have turned down bond issue requests two times in the last two years.

In order to float a $6 million bond issue, a two thirds majority vote must be made. In the last election, held in November, 51,407 persons voted "yes" on the issue, while 37,930 said "no."

If a $6 million bond issue were passed, an increase of 8.3 cents per $100 of assessed evaluation would be necessary. This would bring the total cost per $100 up to 18 cents for area residents to support hospital costs.

Board officials have indicated that they are grossly overcrowded at the hospital. LeVerette Bristol, administrator of the facility said that the kitchen area in the hospital is a problem.

Current operations there are crowded. The dietary area was originally set up for a 100 bed hospital. Today, the hospital has 216 beds. It was pointed out that there is no space for storage of food.

BOND ISSUE SEEN

Forance Boyd, chairman of the board told this newspaper that officials have not given up on the bond issue proposal. He said, "We shouldn't quit on the issue idea."

"We have to do something about the conditions that exist at the hospital immediately. We have an X-Ray room and laboratory that need expansion, as well as the kitchen area."

"These conditions must be corrected regardless of any bond issue," he said.

Boyd pointed out that the emergency room at the hospital is another critical area that needs prompt attention. He said, "We have a very serious problem in that area also."

"When the hospital was constructed, the emergency room was not used anywhere near what it is used now. During this past month, more than 1,600 persons passed through the treatment center," he said.

NO DATE SET

Boyd said that the board has not set any date for the bond issue. He said that this is something that they will have to wait and decide at a future time.

Board members did however ask administrator of the facility Bristol to suggest an answer to the problem. They also urged Bristol to figure out how they can get voters approval to increase the hospital capacity from 216 to 500 beds.

Boyd said, "We do not want to see any resident in the district to be forced to go to another hospital if he or she desires to be treated at Grossmont Hospital."

"We have an obligation to the taxpayer to provide him with facilities adequate enough to handle his needs. This includes bed space and having the right equipment made available to him for care."

DUPPLICATION OF SERVICE

When asked by this newspaper if the board had any inclinations of building an annex in the Lemon Grove or Spring Valley area as was indicated when the district was first formed, the answer was "no."

Boyd said, "Both state and local hospital officials feel that duplication of services and equipment would be necessary to operate an annex facility."

"The costs would then be unreasonable to residents when you look at the net results. By this I mean if the same money was to be spent in one location, as would be needed for the annex, we would get much more equipment that would serve a greater number of persons."

He did point out that when the hospital district was founded in 1952, both state and local officials thought then that the hospital would be able to have satellite facilities in the surrounding communities.

Since that time, the thinking of administrators throughout the state, and on the local levels have changed their trend of thoughts to having one large one, but centralized hospital servicing the surrounding communities.

FACE CHANGES TO DATE

The hospital, which opened in 1955 has already undergone a face change. Since that time the bed capacity has been increased from 100 beds to 216.

Another change that was made was in the actual power plant. An administration building was also built.

The hospital had 181 employees in 1956. Today it has 530. The staff is made up of some 175 full time doctors. The total medical staff has 500-600 doctors in association with the hospital.

Boyd said, "I feel that if we had the Grossmont Hospital up at a 500 bed capacity at this time, in the period of one year, we would be again faced with overcrowding."

Persons in the hospital district, include an area approximately 730 square miles, extending from 70th st., southwest through Campo, east through the Mexican border, north through the Cleveland National Forest and the mountain resort area.

In July, the board raised the $40 room rate for a two-bed room to a $44 a day for residents of the district and $48 for non-residents.

Narcotics -- A Way of Death

They found him in a San Ysidro motel just before Christmas. He was dead. He had spent several of his most recent 19 years in jail as a convicted narcotics user.

He had worked for us about a week. Now, at 19, and at Christmas, he was dead. He left the expectedly dejected note symbolic of a narcotics user trapped by events which made society — and some of its demands — incomprehensible to him. His final note said that the world was cold and cruel and he couldn't cope with society.

Yet, this handsome, sensitive, intelligent and co-operative youth had said to us the day before that he had recently seen the errors of his way. He said he had a girl. One he was going to marry. And have children—children that he wanted to be proud of him.

In our discussion, he confessed that this was to be his first Christmas as a youthful adult, out of jail. He had just bought his first Christmas tree in his life, he announced proudly.

But he had two squawks. "One was his probation officer who he said called him foul names unnecessarily and in private."

"His other squawk was that 'they' wouldn't leave him alone. 'They', he admitted, were his former narcotics cronies."

Some were users — some were suppliers. But these former contacts persisted in bothering him. And he was almost defenseless because our present, permissive society, provides no defense. Those who would keep narcotics as a way of life are jealous of those who would leave it. They threaten and frequently use violence to make their point. This adds to the hardship of a befuddled youngster whose will-power has been almost completely drained by drugs.

But we had this youth's attention and his trust for a few days. Together, we made plans for his future. We told him of a program by which he could escape from "their" power and influence. Since he had already found again the rationale of honorable intentions he was well along the road of morality and respectability. He had, during the month of December, rejected the relaxed and undisciplined existence "they" offered. An existence he knew had but one end.

No one can be certain what happened to this fine young man in the few, final hours of his life. But his passing had told us again how easy the stuff is to acquire.

"The hardest part is not taking it when 'they' shove it at you," he had confided.

Whatever his weakness, it was exploited all the way by those who stood to gain by his using it. In this, as in every such tragedy, stand persons who are in it only for profit. This lad, and literally thousands of others in the east county, are being equally exploited while parents and police stand helplessly by. The one word motive then is "profit."

Helping in the profit motive is the new-day philosophy of our courts. They, as much as the narcotics salespeople, have helped bring national disgrace to otherwise normal family life of too many Americans. Courts have weakened the nar-

Banks To Handle Registrations

Vehicle registration for 1969 may be renewed at 150 banks in California metropolitan areas during January and through February 4, 1969, according to Verne Orr, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles. None in Lemon Grove or Spring Valley will provide the service because of the close proximity to the DMV La Mesa office, a spokesman said. BankAmerica has issued drafts to its clients which will be accepted as cash by DMV.

Orr cautioned that DMV clerks at banks are able to handle only routine exchanges of fees for stickers and card stubs. He advised anyone whose registration requires a special computation or adjustment to call at a regular DMV office or visit the office of an auto club of which he is a member.

DMV registration stations in banks will be open during regular banking hours, starting Thursday, January 2, and continuing through close of business on Tuesday, February 4. Orr said that a routine payment of the fees printed on the punched registration card, and return to the customer of the stamped card stub, with a license plate sticker, takes 30 seconds or less. "The important thing is not to wait until the final week's rush creates lineups one or two hours long," he cautioned.

Although DMV is assisting with boat registration renewals, such renewals will not be handled in banks.

Special Census To Provide Rise In County Income

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County officials expect to gain about $1,075,000 through this and the next fiscal year from a special census authorized Monday by the board of supervisors.

Planning Director Dan Chertier estimated the increase in non-city population since the 1965 estimate in 1965 at 125,500.

Chief Administrative officer Fred Morey said the head county by the state department of finance would cost not more than $75,000 and give the county a gain in motor vehicle license fee funds of $525,000 after the cost.

Next year, he said, this figure would be about $650,000, but this would be reduced in total by an increase in Medicaid payments to the state of $100,000.

WED: Candlelight services were held at the United Methodist Church, South Pasadena on Dec. 7 as Miss Deborah J. Hunter of Alhambra, Calif. become the bride of Daniel Mark Hacker of Lemon Grove. Miss Hunter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Hunter, 999 E. Valley Blvd., Alhambra. Hacker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Hacker, 2090 Madera, Lemon Grove.

Miss Hunter will graduate from San Diego State College in Jan. Hacker is also scheduled to graduate from the same school at the same time. He is slated to receive a commission in the Navy Reserves. The newlyweds took a honeymoon ski trip to Mammoth Lake. They plan to make their home in Lemon Grove.

Spring Valley Man Claims Bride In San Francisco

A Spring Valley man claimed a Santa Rosa girl as his bride when Miss Maureen Lechwar and Michael Benjamin Ruef were married Saturday noon in a nuptial Mass celebrated in St. Cecilia's Catholic Church in San Francisco. Father Robert A. Sunderland, S.J., Vice-president of Student Affairs at the University of San Francisco, officiated.

The bride wore a gown of parchment organza intricately cut with a fitted bodice and a slim A-line skirt banded with rows of peau d'ange lace.

The same lace was used to form the dainty cap sleeves. For a bridal veil she wore a tiered lace-edged mantilla of silk illusion. She carried orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Maureen Lechwar of Concord, California, was maid of honor, and Timothy Ruef was his brother's best man.

John Blackman, brother of the bride served as usher, and Allen Anderson, uncle of the bride from Livermore, California, gave his niece in marriage. Out of state guests included Mr. and Mrs. David Patton and son Tim of Seattle, Washington and Miss Veronica Colgan, aunt of the groom from Creston, Iowa.

Following the ceremony a reception and dinner was held at the Presidio Officers' Club in San Francisco.

The bride is a graduate of Ursuline High School in Santa Rosa, and her husband graduated from University High School, San Diego. Both young people attended the University of San Francisco and will make their home in Santa Monica.

Ruef is employed by the Los Angeles City Schools and Mrs. Ruef will continue her education at the University of Southern California.

Missionary Workers Complete 4 Month Study Of S. California

A team of nine experienced Presbyterian mission workers stationed abroad have completed an intensive four-month study of Southern California urban areas under the auspices of the Synod of Southern California.

Nearly every facet of city life came under the scrutiny of the missionaries, who examined the plight of the Negroes in Watts, the Mexican-Americans in San Diego and Los Angeles, and the crisis on college campuses of the Southland.

The study team came from six foreign countries — Colombia, Brazil, Trinidad, Romania, Kenya, and South Africa — to provide church groups with an objective view of local problems as seen from abroad and to gain cause and effect information to take back overseas with them.

Coordinator of the group was the Rev. James W. Byers, who serves as secretary of distribution and public relations with the Evangelical Audio-Visual Center in Brazil. Others participating in the so-called "Personnel Redeployment Project" of the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. included: Juanleandro Gorza who is engaged in social work at Centro Social, a neighborhood center in Bogota, Colombia.

He served there as an aide to the Spanish-American communities in Riverside, Redlands, and San Bernardino.

Mary Jane Patterson, director of a hostel for girls in Nairobi, Kenya, who worked on the staff of Protestant Community Services while in Los Angeles was also participating.

Members of the Presbyterian redeployment team have now returned to their former mission stations, following a three-day debriefing session in New York.

While in the Southland they spoke in 85 different churches and related organizations, held lengthy dialogues with minority group leaders, and worked shoulder-to-shoulder with the underprivileged in critical Southern California areas.

Three-hundred members and guests will attend the Horizon Club Blue and Silver Ball to be held Friday, Jan. 3, at Montezuma Hall, San Diego State College. Members of 25 Horizon Clubs from throughout the county have joined together in planning the semi-formal event.

"Horizon Club is the social division of Camp Fire Girls," said Kathy Hentschel, chairman of the ball and a senior at Hoover High School. "The first Blue and Silver Ball was held before World War II, and except for during a few of the war years, it has been one of the events that Horizon Club girls have looked forward to each year."

Red and gold tissue-paper roses and gold crescent moons will carry out the theme "El Plaza de la Luna." The high school and college-age guests will dance to the music of The Light Brigade.

Planning committee members are Kathy Hentschel, general chairwoman; Louise Young, and; Judy Zornes and Sandy Johnson, bids; Linda Clarke and Susan Campbell, refreshments; Joni Adams and Kathy Coetter, door prizes; Gale Mitchell and Beth Monks, decorations; Pat Kring and Peggy Hamilton, chaperones; Carol Kramer, arrangements and Janet Smith and Kathy Greer, couple cards.

Girls in the ninth through 12th grades belong to Horizon Clubs. Each club plans and carries out its own program of service and fun, but girls from all clubs participate in the community volunteer service program. Countywide activities such as the Blue and Silver Ball are coordinated through the Horizon Club Cabinet which meets monthly. Each club sends two delegates.

Officers of the cabinet are Tanann Allen, president; Kathy Hentschel, vice president; Celeste Strehlau, secretary and Bev Davis, historian. Linda Gallo is staff advisor.

Mrs. Elsie Gilham has been installed as president of the La Mesa Camera Club. She was seated at a recent installation dinner held at the La Mesa Bowl.

Mrs. Gilham is a retired school teacher. She taught at Grossmont High School for 34 years. She is now active in photography throughout S. Calif.

Others seated included Mrs. Theo Dornbusch, who will act as vice-president for 1969 and Fred Burkhardt who will assume the position of secretary-treasurer.

Walter Dornbusch, retiring president, conducted the installation ceremonies for the new officers. He also presented a resume of the activities and accomplishments of the club during the past year.

Annual awards for outstanding photographic achievement were presented to club members at the meeting. Harry Gilham, of Spring Valley, received the Print-of-the-Year plaque.

Art Ariessohn took second place in that division while Walter Dornbusch took third place.

Charles Mucha won the Best Color Slide of the Year award. Emil Johnson and Violet Seamen came in second and third respectively. Honorable mention went to Art Ariessohn. Fred Burkhardt, Georgia Dutton and Harry Lynch.

The club has some 37 members who meet at the Adult Recreation Center in La Mesa monthly. Currently a display of the Club's works can be seen at the recreation center's gallery.

ACTIVITY INCREASES AS COMMUNITY GROWS

Spring Valley Progress Outlined As New Year Begins

January, 1968 bounced in on a sour note, when it was reported three persons had been injured in Spring Valley in two separate car accidents the latter part of December, 1967.

Later in the month parents in the La Mesa-Spring Valley schools received Drug Problem booklets and the Grossmont Adult Education System offered many courses.

Toward the middle of the month there were good scores and close bowling battles at Golden Bowl lanes, and Monte Vista and Helix High Schools "clash with ball and fists."

Also the La Presa Town Council was active and the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club announced its slate of officers. Then toward the end of January the much discussed parking ban along Campo rd. in Casa de Oro was "lifted."

FEBRUARY
Came the month of February and Spring Valley Attorney Ron Svalstad was elected president of the Foothills Bar Association.

In the second week the Monte Vista basketball team continued its winning streak to 23. Then the override election was a success in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

Mid-Feb. and a Brunswick bowling champ makes an appearance at Golden Bowl. Then State Assemblyman Wadie Deddah promised people of the area lower taxes. And the Spring Valley Historical Society received some valuable books.

Toward the end of the month D. John Warburton resigned as superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District, and a tax vote was turned down for the Grossmont District.

About that time the Spring Valley Rotary Club elected officers, the installation set for July.

MARCH
Early in March the street parking along Campo rd. in Casa de Oro was termed as "out". The Spring Valley Community Welfare Inc. made early plans for its annual "Scholarship" luncheon and fashion show. And the date was set for the 1968 "Fairness of the Fair" contest.

Toward the latter part of March, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rosen, long-time Valleyites, celebrated their "Golden Wedding" anniversary. Harry Schidel, San Diego councilman, planned to oppose Bob Dent in the Supervisorial race, and spoke in Spring Valley.

The last of March and "Family Life and Sex Education" was vastly discussed at the LMSV School District board meeting.

The S.V. Kiwanis Club made final plans for its annual "Pancake Festival" and 28 Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista High students were named for achievement. Then local "Hell's Angels" were held for kidnapping.

APRIL
Came April and all Boy Scouts were making plans for the B. S. Fair. The Brookside "ditch" was again in the news, and final plans were laid for the S.V. Welfare Fashion Show.

Mid-April and artist Helen Goodall of Spring Valley won an art contest. The Little League season was ready to begin. And Fred Jabusch, a member of the board of the LMSV School District, resigns.

MAY
Early May and registration began for pre-school children in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

The S.V. Bobby Sox league became active and the La Mesa Writers Club opened its annual writers contest county-wide. Then Linda Davis was named "Miss Spring Valley" for 1968.

Later in May five Valedictorians were named at Monte Vista High. Then there was a testimonial dinner for outgoing superintendent John Warburton.

Mid-May and five educators were honored in the LMSV School District. Three High School students at M.V. won medallions and an exchange student of M.V. High in Australia was injured in an accident.

Then later the District Attorney challenged registration of the Otay Water District Directors.

Toward the end of the month a Spring Valley woman was united with her mother after a 25 year separation. The S.V. Welfare named three scholarship awarders. A Monte Vista High student was appointed to the U. S. Navy Academy. And "Mud Slinging" was charged in the political race.

It was reported real estate was on the "uptrend" in the area, and civic leaders and others had a close look at Spring Valley, via bus.

JUNE
Early in June the S.V. Kiwanis Club set the date for its "Tournament of Roses" contest. The Spring Valley Woman's Club elected new officers, and "Miss Spring Valley" and "Miss Lemon Grove" vied for "Fairness of the Fair."

The Spring Valley Lions Club elected and installed new officers. Mid-June and the annual "Back Yard" swim program was under way in the Valley. And a new superintendent was named for the Grossmont Union High School District.

Toward the end of the month the exchange student from S.V. High reported on the Aussies' schools. The S.V. Recreation District summer events got under way and the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District o.k.'s a $10 million budget.

The last of June and Jerry Watmore, Spring Valley whale trainer, told of her experiences. The LMSV teachers elected officers. And many fires plagued S.V. firemen. The "Hell's Angels" received sentences.

JULY
Early July and the Spring Valley Kiwanis announced they had "adopted" a Korean and a Hong Kong orphan. And "Sex" proposals stirred the board meeting of the LMSV School District.

Later in July, a committee aired the "Sex" Program.

Mid-July and Robert Watkins, a former Monte Vista High student, was conferred his medical degree.

A new assistant pastor was named for Trinity Presbyterian Church. The "Sex Education" program was dropped for the LMSV School District, and teachers of that district get pay hikes.

Latter part of July and new traffic lights are installed at the Freeway and Sweetwater rd. "Thrift Shop" No. 1 on Memory ln., moved to Sweetwater rd. and the Grossmont High School District board asked for more funds.

AUGUST
August 1 and Monte Vista frosh took part in an archeology program.

One week later the Monte Vista water polo team was quite active. Then Mrs. Armand Ample celebrated her 102nd birthday. And Fire Chief Frank Berger, a past president of S.V. Kiwanis Club was up for Lt. Governor of Division 31.

A Spring Valley man died after being attacked. Construction was delayed on the new La Presa Junior High School.

Mid-August and "Thrift Shop" No. 1 moved. Then several suspects were held in the murder of the S.V. man.

Later in the month "Vacation Bible Schools" were active in S.V. churches. And the County Tax Rate dropped. Lucius Lawton, retiring Assistant Spring Valley Fire Chief, was honored for his long service.

The last of August and "Miss Spring Valley" was disqualified by her marriage. And the Spring Valley Friends Community Church acquired a new pastor.

SEPTEMBER
Early in September four LMSV school teachers retired. And the District shifted several principals. The La Mesa Writers Club announced winners of the contest and of its new book. The defendants in the murder trial of the S.V. man pleaded innocent.

Mid-Sept. and three persons from S.V. were nabbed in connection with dope.

Then later in the month the "Back Yard" swimmers were honored. And a narcotics drop was deemed conceivable in Spring Valley. And work was being done on new roads.

The latter part of Sept. and amber lights were installed at Elkton bld. and Jamacha rd. The Spring Valley Lions Club held its annual "White Cane" campaign.

The La Presa Junior High

School construction hit more snags. And the Grossmont Hospital bond issue opened.

OCTOBER
Came the month of October and the S.V. Kiwanis elected officers to be installed in December. The Monte Vista High cross country team was called tops.

The Brookside "ditch" was still "ditching" officials. And bids were again out for the La Presa Junior High School. Later in the month and the school construction program was viewed by the superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District.

Mid-October and the big campaign by the Spring Valley Bulletin was gathering new subscribers in the Jamul area. Later in October and the Mt. Miguel High marching band won top honors.

The last of Oct. and the fight was still hot in the murder trial regarding the S.V. man and Jamul readers of the Bulletin were still increasing.

NOVEMBER
Early November and Grossmont College expected a high enrollment.

Later in Nov. the Post Office officials urged early Christmas mailing.

Still later in the month it was announced the new reader drive would aid a retarded home.

Toward the last of the month the drive to aid the retarded home was gaining. And it was reported the United Crusade drive in the area was falling short of its goal.

And the superintendent of the LMSV School District returned from a trip to Lebanon. And the letters to Santa Claus began piling up. And canned goods were collected by schools and S.V. Welfare to aid local needy families.

DECEMBER
Dec. 3 and the Spring Valley Community Council planned its annual "Christmas Lights" contest for Spring Valley, with 11 areas.

Mid-December and the LMSV School District had financial crisis in the tax override election. And 80 more people helped in the drive to aid the home for retarded.

Then the Sex Education was rediscussed, but the program was delayed. Kiwanis and Kiwanian officers were installed.

Toward the end of the month "Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus" visited the S.V. Woman's Club and local rest homes to bring presents and good cheer. Local schools planned a busy Christmas schedule and several Mexican students helped with local Christmas programs.

Finally "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year" greetings were extended to all, and may the Blessing of Heaven Rest upon Everyone.

NEW ROTARIANS: Two men were inducted last week as members of the Spring Valley Rotary Club. Pete Hungerford (left) and Dan Swing (right) are shown as they wish each other best wishes as Rotarians. The club performs various tasks for the community throughout the year.

OUTLOOK IS GOOD Business Growth, Expansion Seen Here In 1968

Lemon Grove has had an exciting year throughout 1968. The community has seen a spurt of growth in both business and in population.

The year got off on a tasty note when Henry Boney, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors made an effort to get property tax relief and a reduction of the cost of welfare.

As the new year started to move, so did the March of Dimes project for Lemon Grove. The annual charity program collects money to help fight child birth defects.

Not all things shine each day in the community. Lemon Grove suffered a loss to the community with the passing of Alfred I. Burke.

Burke was instrumental in the creating of Little League Pony League, and Pop Warner football in Lemon Grove. He had cancer. He was serving as president of the L.G. Little League Assoc. at the time of his death.

With the new year in the early stages of growth so was one of the Lemon Grove's merchants. Noel Hanson, auto dealer purchased his third unit.

Hanson, 31, who has been active in community affairs during the past year opened his new location at 8012 Broadway.

FEBRUARY
As the second month of 1968 rolled around, members of the Lemon Grove Committee on Schools was picking up their pace. The group worked on plans for approval of the Elementary School District Override Tax election.

The Grossmont Union High School District, which includes Mt. Miguel, Helix, and Monte Vista High Schools was notified that Feb. 19 Dr. John T. Warburton, superintendent of the district was going to resign.

He is now a member of the faculty at San Diego State College.

MARCH
William Ayers, 44 year-old Chula Vista investment counselor threw his hat in the political ring during the first week of March.

Ayers, a former Navy chief, opposed Wadde Deddeh and challenged his seat for the 77th Assembly District, in an unsuccessful attempt.

Shortly after, San Diego City Councilman, Mike Schaefer decided to run against Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin. Schaefer fell short in his congressional bid.

Mike Ela of Mt. Miguel High School was named as player of the year to head the All-Grossmont League Basketball League selections. Mt. Miguel cleaned up the league with a perfect record of 32-0.

Harry Scheidle tossed his hat into the supervisors race, challenging Robert C. Dent, representing this area. In the final elections, Scheidle defeated Dent.

APRIL
Dr. Frank Gigliotti traveled to Washington, D.C. to attend the International Supermen Council of De Molay's convention on International Relations.

Dr. Gigliotti is minister of the United Presbyterian Church in Lemon Grove.

Business continued to grow in this community as Camperland, at 6828 Federal opened their new location. Officials throughout the community and the county attended the opening.

Chris Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Collier, 7811 Palm, was named as Miss Lemon Grove 1968, in a competition held at the Lemon Grove Junior High School.

Since then, Miss Collier has represented Lemon Grove at the Del Mar Fair, as a member of the Fairest of the Fair, and has been involved as goodwill ambassador for this community.

MAY
Ten area families were honored by the Foster Parents Association of San Diego County at the Community Concourse for their help and work in developing their foster families.

Honored were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hada; Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Updike, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parker, all of Lemon Grove.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held at 7295 North, Lemon Grove in the construction of a $360,000 housing unit to be built by Robert Weeks of Lemon Grove.

The Town Houses are just being finished. Occupancy is expected within the next three to four weeks.

Lemon Grove residents celebrated their annual Old Time Days. More than 1,100 marchers took part in the parade down Broadway.

Highlighting the activities, were the dedication of the new U.S. Post Office, Federal, state and local officials were on hand or the ceremonies.

JUNE
School days came to an end for many students, and a new way of life was beginning for many others as Helix, Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista High Schools conducted graduation exercises.

At the same time, San Diego State College, and other area colleges held graduation exercises for many local residents.

Dr. Austin Sellery, was named new superintendent for the Grossmont Union High School District. Sellery replaced Dr. J. T. Warburton.

Again, business expansion continued to move. The property at the northwest corner of Broadway and Grove st., was purchased by the U.S. National Bank.

Since then, the corner property was leveled and a new parking lot installed at the site.

JULY
With the community taking on a new look, Brumley's Shoes, under the direction of Len Farness and Roy Lane, set plans in motion for expansion of the facility, and the opening of Len's Men's Wear.

At the same time, Clifton Clark, owner of Tri-City TV expanded their facility. Tri-City moved into space which had been the home of Red's Western Auto.

Red's Western Auto had just moved across the street to a much larger facility.

H. Dale Willey was named during July as District Commander of the First District, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Willey lives in Lemon Grove and is a member of the En-canto Post 6874.

Lemon Grove got the word on further business expansion around July 18 when construction of a satellite center was announced.

The center, now underway by the Harbor Management Corporation is taking place at College ave., and Federal blvd.

AUGUST
Local residents, civil leaders, and members of area service clubs turned out for "Appreciation Day" at the Lemon Grove Park.

The day was set aside to honor leaders for their work in the Old Time Days program.

Area fire chiefs gathered in La Mesa, to discuss a fire communications system that would serve Lemon Grove better. The matter is now in front of the supervisors.

Sparks lit the fan as R. A. Weeks, owner of Weeks Construction Co. charged the board of Supervisors with lack of concern for Lemon Grove.

He called for a close look at zoning statutes for the community. Weeks also requested that the planning Commission investigate the zoning of Lemon Grove.

SEPTEMBER
Red's Western Auto Store, 7702 Broadway, held their grand opening. Members of the community, officials and other dignitaries turned out for the event.

A week later Len's Men's Wear, 7765 Broadway held their grand opening.

Lemon Grove got a face lifting when the Chamber of Commerce, along with other civic organizations made a check of major streets and picked up any rubbish in sight.

Kids Day was held here, with the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club acting as host sponsor. The event drew more than 5,000 children in the all day activities which included a parade.

OCTOBER
The school construction program in the Grossmont Union High School District gets a sharp look. With various additions at area high schools, total construction would have equaled the building of another high school.

The high school district begins its efforts, along with citizens to have a new tax over-ride approved by area voters. The measure was passed in the November elections.

NOVEMBER
Herbert R. Rainwater was elected as junior vice commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was honored by a Homecoming turn-out by VFW members.

Lemon Grove sponsored three teams in the San Diego Junior County league. The teams represent kids from 8 to 18 years-old. This is the only community in the county that has three teams.

Harry Scheidle, who will take office shortly, outlined possible plans for Lemon Grove. He suggested the possibility of a Community Council to act as a representative body from Lemon Grove.

The Mt. Miguel High School basketball team falls short as they were stopped after winning 34 straight games.

DECEMBER
The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce holds a grand opening at their new home at 3415 Imperial ave. More than 350 persons turned out for the gala event.

President of the Chamber of Commerce, Francis X. Shughrue, Jr., officiated at the ceremonies. The community now has an office that it can be proud of, and share with any organizations that want to conduct their meetings at the office.

The Mt. Miguel Band gets ready to travel to Pasadena for the Rose parade. The band will represent San Diego County.

Lemon Grove takes a close look at 1968. Community leaders, businessmen, and residents celebrate Christmas. The community looks forward to a successful year in 1969.

TAPPED AS TREASURER — Mrs. Allan Albright, a member of the county March of Dimes executive board, taps K. C. Montgomery as treasurer of the Lemon Grove drive in January. Mr. Montgomery is vice president of the Lemon Grove branch of the Bank of America.

Volunteers Needed In Dimes Campaign

An appeal for volunteers in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area to enlist in the March of Dimes drive in January against birth defects in San Diego County was issued yesterday by Sheriff Joseph O'Connor, campaign chairman.

Area chairman for the Lemon Grove area is H. C. Subbs of 6800 Mallard st., San Diego. Clyde Jenkins, 4411 Helix dr., Spring Valley heads up the Spring Valley drive.

Sheriff O'Connor said that men, women and teenagers were needed to perform "interesting and highly worthwhile tasks in the community."

"An appeal for volunteers on behalf of the March of Dimes is difficult to ignore when you learn just a few of the grim facts," Sheriff O'Connor said. Each year throughout the nation more than 250,000 babies come into the world with birth defects . . . that's one every 120 seconds. In our state alone, the yearly total of these infants is about 24,000.

"Since March of Dimes medical care and research can help many of these innocent children, how can any of us here, even though we have very little time to spare, fail to respond?"

The March of Dimes official added that the prospective volunteers are invited to phone for additional information at 284-1166 or write to the San Diego County Chapter of The National Foundation, 6156 Mission Gorge rd., Room H, San Diego, California 92120.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way Hardison's Telespanish

First settlement of San Diego began two hundred years ago this year. Some of the first settlers came from Mexico City and Acapulco. Many others, though originally from Spain, walked the long stretch from Loreto, Baja California to San Diego. Many took the sea route from off the mainland coast of Mexico. All suffered the hardships of travelling in an unknown wilderness with shortages of drinking water and food. The voyage, by land and sea, was so treacherous that it took many lives.

Among those to arrive was Junipero Serra, Franciscan priest and hearty born Majorca servant of the gospel. His roll in California's settlement and founding of missions commanded the reverent respect and collective appreciation of succeeding generations.

This year San Diegans will reflect upon the activities of our founding fathers as we celebrate California's 200th anniversary. It all started in 1769: The Spanish heritage and language has added color, romance, and drama to the early history and has blended beautifully with present day life in California.

This writer is honored to participate in bringing a television salute, in a series of ten programs, to the brave and daring men and women who first came to San Diego. The program is called Explorers' Spanish and the first one will be viewed this coming Saturday, Jan. 4, at 7 a.m. on Channel 8. The men and the Spanish they used and wrote in the exploration, founding, and settling of California will be presented. Join us.

The following phrases begin a Spanish salute to San Diego. Let's try to say them. If you wish, you may learn them with the help of the recorded voice that you may hear when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES
Say "Felicitades San Diego." (feh-lee-see-DAH-dehs sahn dee-EH-goh) for "Congratulations San Diego."
Say "En su cumpleaños." (ehn soo koom-plee-AHN-yohs) for "On your birthday."

USEFUL PHRASES
Say "Celebrate con usted." (seh-leh-BRAH-mohs kohn oo-STEH-d) for "We celebrate with you."
Say "Este ano." (EH-steh AHN-yoh) for "This year."
OTHER PHRASES
Say "Que siga progresando." (keh SEE-gah proh-greh-SAHN-doh) for "May you continue progressing."
Say "Año tras año." (AHN-yoh trahs AHN-yoh) for "Year after year."

Legislative Champion
To Speak In San Diego

The legislative champion of federal government workers, John F. Griner, will speak in San Diego Jan. 9, at the El Cortez Hotel.

Griner, president of the more than 300,000 member American Federation of Government Employees (AFL-CIO), is a well known spokesman for the government worker by virtue of the fact that he is the only Union leader who appears at every hearing by Congressional committees on legislation affecting the government worker.

Van's Congressional Eye Given CATV Legislation

WASHINGTON — Legislation for dealing with highly charged local and national issues will be offered in the House of Representatives this week by Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego.

One Van Deerlin resolution would prompt Congressional action to define the rights and responsibilities of cable television. The San Diego area has been a primary battleground in the ongoing struggle between CATV and established television interests.

Van Deerlin also will reintroduce his measure for abolishing the electoral college method of choosing the President. "Because of the inequities built into the electoral college, we've always been confronted with the threat that a candidate trailing in the popular vote might win our highest office," he said. "But the threat, and the concern, have rarely been greater than during the recent campaign, and enthusiasm for reform is running high."

Also planned by Van Deerlin is a bill to increase from two to five the number of judges assigned to San Diego's federal court. "The sharp upswing in federal narcotics arrests at the border has dramatized the need to provide this extra help to our judges, who are burdened with the heaviest caseloads in the country," the Congressman said.

The CATV proposal calls for "a full and complete investigation and study of federal regulation" of the cable television industry by the House Commerce Committee, of which Van Deerlin is a ranking member.

"I've been troubled by the inaction of Congress in this area," he said. "The Supreme Court and the Federal Communications Commission have been making all the big decisions."

As a result of an FCC ruling last June, CATV expansion has been severely restricted in the San Diego area.

"We now have situations which appear ridiculous on their face," Van Deerlin said. "Take the South Bay area: residents of most parts of Chula Vista are entitled to unlimited CATV which is now denied the neighboring communities of National City and Imperial Beach."

Van Deerlin said he hoped the proposed committee investigation would culminate in "meaningful" legislation for regulating the future growth of CATV.

ENGAGED TO WED: Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Jaeschke have announced the engagement of their daughter Miss Nancy Lynn Hoffman of 3229 Acacia st., Lemon Grove to Ben Martin. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Martin, 8810 Orville st., Spring Valley. Miss Hoffman is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High School and received an A. A. Degree from Grossmont college. Martin, a Mt. Miguel graduate also, is now attending San Diego State College for a Master's degree. He is a graduate of Norwich Univ. in Vermont with a degree in civil engineering. A June 14 wedding date has been set for the couple.

Mt. Miguel, Helix, Monte Vista Matmen Vie For Tourney Crown

Matadors To Defend Title; Monarchs To Give Hard Fight

Mt. Miguel High School will send its crackerjack varsity wrestling team into action on Saturday to defend the Annual Grossmont College Holiday High School Invitational Wrestling Tournament crown at the Grossmont College gym.

The two day tournament which opens Friday will see teams from all high schools in the San Diego area, along with Holtville, and Oceanside competing for top honors.

All teams in the Grossmont League have been invited to attend according to Bob Haywood, Grossmont College wrestling coach. Other teams include all of those from the Avocado, Metro, Eastern, and Western leagues.

Weight-ins will open at 6 a. m. Friday morning with the first junior varsity wrestling match starting at 8 a. m. The finals will begin at 6 p. m. on Friday for the freshmen.

Varsity competition will open at 10 a. m. Saturday morning. Weight-ins for the upperclassmen will begin at 7 a. m. Saturday. The championship and consolation brackets will be decided Saturday night.

Mt. Miguel, Monte Vista, and Helix High, who finished first, second and third respectively last year, in varsity action, will again be competing for the crown.

Monte Vista, who won the Khyanis Tournament this year, will be in close contention with a tough Monte Vista team that won the Grossmont League title last year.

Helix will send such grapplers as heavyweight Mike Odum, who is coming off a victory over Mt. Miguel's Billy Joe Winchester, and 133-pound senior Larry Davidson as they enter the event.

Davidson, along with Dale Sauter, in the 165-pound class, and junior Dave Hoff in the 180-pound division took first place honors in the Chula Vista-Kiwanis tournament held in early December.

Other Highlanders to watch for in the upcoming tournament would be junior Tim Shaeffer (a second place finisher in the Kiwanis Tournament), 95-pounder Mitch Steinmayer (also a second place finisher), junior Mark Whillock, who will be going in the 145-pound weight group, and senior Dennis Leslie in the 135-pound class.

TEAM EFFORT EXPECTED

The Highlanders will be looking for a strengthened team effort in the tourney, trying to better their second place finish in the Kiwanis Tourney. They tied with Mt. Miguel in that event.

They will also have an extra incentive to outdo the Matadors, as the Mt. Miguel grapplers edged the Scots 21-17 in a league contest Dec. 20.

Leading the Highland wrestlers in the match were Hoff, winning on a pin, Sauter, Odum, Shaeffer and Chris Ehrentraut, all winners by decision.

The Scot junior varsity smashed the Matadors with a 30-17 triumph in the Dec. 20 Match.

In the junior varsity division, Lincoln will be out to defend its crown. Both Helix

Founders Day Celebration Is January 8

The Spring Valley Woman's Club will celebrate its Founders' Day with a luncheon at the Bronze Room in La Mesa on Wednesday, Jan. 8, at 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. I. W. Butterfield, program chairman, will present Mrs. Robert R. Graham, club member and member of the Spring Valley Community Council, in a timely talk key to the kick-off of the 2001 Anniversary Celebration of the San Diego area, on: "The Past Present and Future of Spring Valley."

Mrs. Orville P. Reese, president of Southern District 26 California Federation of Women's Clubs, will be honored guest, and past presidents of Spring Valley Woman's Club will receive.

A huge birthday cake will be displayed. The club was organized on Jan. 7, 1948 with six members, and became a federated club in 1960.

Mrs. C. C. Moyer, Arts and Crafts chairman for the club won a 2nd place award for her display at a November meeting of Southern District 26, in Lemon Grove. Las Cantoras Choral Section sang, under the direction of Mrs. Butterfield.

In USDA tests, all-cotton sheets withstood more than 275 use-laundings.

and Monte Vista High Schools are expected to give the Lincoln matmen a tough battle.

In the freshman division Helix and Grossmont who tied for top grade last year, will be pitched against each other. Santana who finished second last year will also be back in action.

Admission to the contest has been set at 50 cents per student, per session, and $1 for adults.

Globetrotters To Play Again For News Group

The date is Jan. 24 and the place is the San Diego Sports Arena.

That's when the famed Harlem Globetrotters will come to town for their annual visit. Their opponents will be the Washington Generals, coached by Louis (Red) Klotz, who calls himself the Satchel Paige of basketball.

The Trotters once again will put on their patented entertainment program, which has been witnessed by 60,000,000 fans in 87 countries during the last 42 seasons.

The San Diego Chapter of the Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, again will sponsor the game.

Tickets will be available at the Sports Arena and arena ticket outlets after the first of the year.

Weightlifters Clinic Is Saturday At State

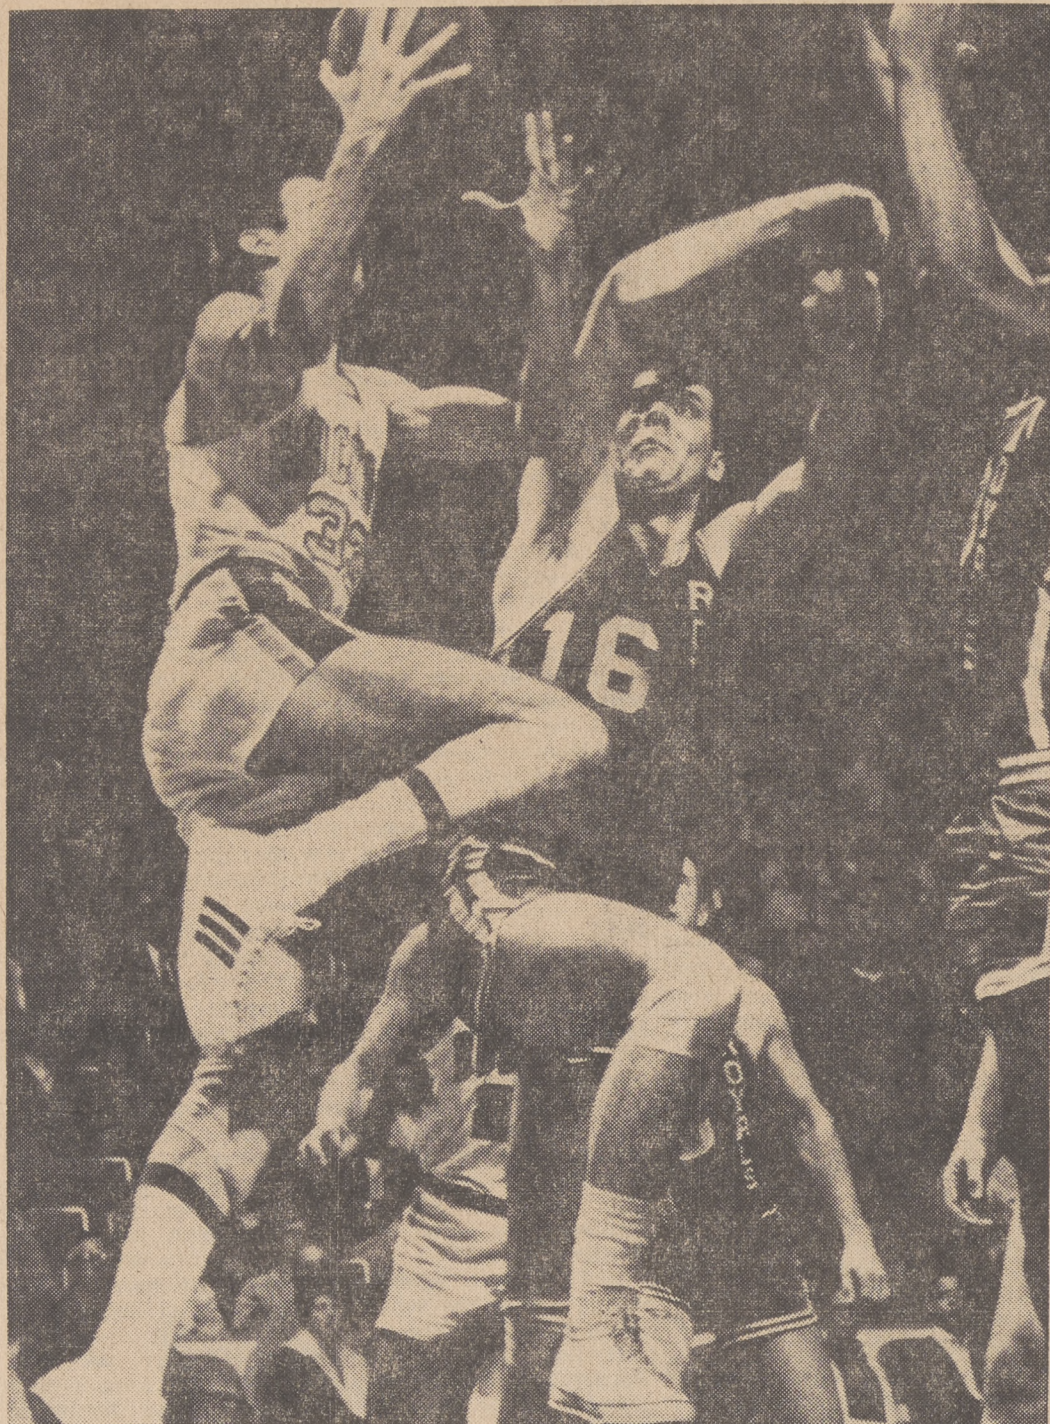

Area weightlifters will participate in a weightlifting clinic on Sunday starting at 11 a. m. at San Diego State College in Peterson Gym.

The clinic will close out at 1 p. m. Feature of the clinic will be 1938 Olympic Weightlifting films. The film will run for two hours. The stop motion-special analyst projector will be used.

In other action, weightlifters from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will take part in the Pacific Southwest Olympic Lift Championships set for Jan. 26-29 at Colina Del Sol Recreation Center.

PRO FOOTBALLERS ARE GOOD MILK DRINKERS

The business manager of the Chicago Bears, professional football club reports: "An amazing thing about the players, I think they're the biggest milk drinkers you ever saw. These guys go through copious quantities of milk." Surveys conducted among top athletes and coaches in the U. S. indicate this is typical of the strong preference for milk by this group. With people who are conscious of physical fitness, there is a natural connection between milk and good health.

HOLIDAY DRIVING: Jim Barnett, strongman for the San Diego Rockets will be pushing for the victory mark for his team as they take on the world championship Boston Celtics in an 8 p. m. National Basketball Assoc. league game at the Sports Arena. Barnett, a former resident of Lemon Grove, now living in La Mesa, will swing into action again Saturday night when the Rockets play host to the Seattle SuperSonics in a 7 p. m. game. Barnett has been a spark for the club to keep them in the top three in Western division play.

Monarchs Journey To Newport Beach For Hoop Tournament Action Today

By SCOTT McGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

Trying to shake a seven-game losing streak, the Monte Vista High School basketball squad will journey to Newport Beach today for the Newport Basketball Tournament. The Monarchs will face an opponent which will be announced after this newspaper's deadline.

After winning their first game of the pre-season against Mission Bay, the Monarchs have dropped seven games in a row.

In losing those games, the Monarchs have played some of the top teams in the County

Year-Round Swim Program Opens At Copley YMCA

The Ira C. Copley Memorial YMCA is conducting a "year round" Learn to Swim Campaign.

The winter session of swimming instruction for boys and girls six years and older opens Monday.

Classes are held in Copley "Y" indoor, heated, junior Olympic size pool. Each student enrolls for 12 hour lessons... one lesson a week for 12 weeks. Classes are held from 3:30 to 4:30 and 4:30 to 5:30 Monday through Thursday.

There are also classes on Saturday, and a free practice period, with enrollment, on Saturday from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Swimming instruction in these classes is geared to all levels of skills, with the children advancing from Minnow to Fish, to Flying Fish, Shark and Porpoise as they progress.

Swimming cards and badge are earned as they pass from one class to the next. There will also be a diving class every Monday from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Knowing how to swim is the first requirement for having all the fun and none of the risks when you participate in any of the water sports offered in San Diego County.

For safety's sake, you are encouraged by YMCA officials to enroll your children now in the swimming classes that begin January 6 at the Copley YMCA.

in Madison twice, Castle Park, and Hilltop.

Lack of offense has hurt the Monarchs as evidenced when they played Crawford and scored just 8, 6, 9 and 10 points respectively in each quarter.

Little rebounding has also hurt Monte Vista as the Monarchs' tallest man on the court is just 6'3" with the smallest being only 5'9".

Jim Bristol, a junior, has been the leading scorer for the Monarchs as a guard. Jim Krattli has also turned in some excellent efforts as a forward.

The Monarchs usually enter the El Centro Basketball Tournament at this time. But due to some allegedly poor officiating last year, the Monarchs chose to enter the Newport Tournament this year.

The league season starts next Tuesday for Monte Vista as they will face each of the seven Grossmont League roundballer squads twice.

Saturday Fun Club Registration Opens

"Fun and fitness" — that's the program in store for youth of all ages who enroll in the winter program of activities at the Ira C. Copley Memorial YMCA.

One popular program for boys and girls 6 to 10 years-of-age is the Saturday Fun Club. The club meets every Saturday morning from 9 to noon. Activities include arts and crafts, fitness, hikes, games and field trips.

Recreational swimming is also a part of the planned activities. Registrations are now being taken for this session of the Saturday Fun Club which begins Jan. 11.

The Copley YMCA is also continuing their Youth Physical Program for boys and young men from eight to eighteen with new classes starting Jan. 6. Boys in the eight through eleven year bracket meet each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3:30 to 5 p. m.

Activities will include gymnastics, wrestling, basketball, track, volleyball and individual sports. The pool schedule is from 4:30 to 5:30 on Friday and from 11 to 1 p. m. on Saturday.

Junior and Senior High boys meet every Tuesday and Thursday even from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Activities include bodybuilding exercise, paddle rackets, wrestling, trampoline and competitive sports.

They also have a pool schedule on Friday and Saturday. For more information about the Saturday Fun Club and the Youth Physical Program at the Copley YMCA, call 283-2251.

Helix High Suffers First Loss

By DON KIENER
Helix High Sports Writer

The No. 1 rated Helix Highlanders basketball team suffered their first setback of the season, 63-60, to Santa Paula High in their first game of the Fillmore Tournament.

The Scots, who captured the Kiwanis Tourney Unlimited Division championship, were undefeated in 10 previous games.

They were paced by Bill and Bruce Walton who scored 17 and 15 points respectively, but was without the services of Bruce Menser.

Trailing by 16 points at the end of the third quarter, the Highlanders staged a desperate last quarter drive, but it was weakened when Bill Walton fouled out.

The following afternoon Helix downed Glendale Hoover, 58-59. Menser took the scoring honors with 23 points, and was closely followed by Dave Unroe with 20. Also scoring in double figures was Bill Walton who had 12.

The Highlanders captured the consolation title by dumping Bakersfield, 76-61, on Saturday. Unroe led the Scottie attack with 24 points, and was followed by Bruce Walton with 15 and Mike Dupree with 10.

Helix led at the half, 42-25 but Bakersfield closed the margin to 10 points in the third period. The Scots came back however with a 23 point final period to subdue the threat.

Bill Walton was the only Highlander to obtain a tournament all-star berth.

The Scots, who's next contest is scheduled for Jan. 7, when they play host to Grossmont in their league opener, are now 12-1 for the season.

Sneak Preview Of Sensational Rookie Is Tonight At Arena

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley sports fans can get a sneak preview of the NBA All-Star Game this week at the Sports Arena when the Rockets send rookie sensation Elvin Hayes against the Eastern Division's two best centers.

The Big E and forward Don Kojis have won the approval of sportswriters and broadcasters, who regularly cover the NBA, to start in the All-Star Game Jan. 14 at Baltimore for the Western Division.

In that role, Big E will battle against Boston's Bill Russell and Baltimore's rookie pivot, Wes Unseld.

Both men will lead their clubs against the Rockets this week at the Sports Arena in addition to a third home contest against the Seattle SuperSonics.

It all starts at 8 o'clock tonight when Russell and the World Champion Boston Celtics collide with the Rockets.

Gulls Face Roadrunners Friday Nite

The San Diego Gulls start out the New Year tomorrow night when they face the rugged Phoenix Roadrunners at the Sports Arena at 8 p. m.

The game will open a stretch of five straight home duels for the Gulls, who don't go back on the road until Jan. 24.

The Gulls saw out the old year in Denver, as they met the Spurs in a New Year's Eve game in the mile-high city.

San Diego picked off a win and two ties in four starts last week and started this week's activity at the head of the Western League, with a two-point margin over Portland and Vancouver, who are tied for second.

The Gulls played to 2-2 and 4-4 ties with Phoenix, then split a pair of games with Seattle over the weekend, losing 3-2 on Saturday night and coming back Sunday night to dump the Totems, 4-1.

The Sunday night game broke an eight-game winless streak for the Gulls. During that stretch they lost five games and tied three.

"I hope we're over the hump now," said Gulls coach Max McNab. "We were close in several of the games we tied and lost and could have won them, but it's tough to win when you're in a streak like we were."

Sex Education Talk Slated Sunday P.M.

Lester A. Kirkendall, a Oregon State University professor will be on hand for the opening of the second annual Forum of the Foothills Sunday in the Parkway Junior High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Kirkendall, an authority in the field of sex education, will talk on "Sexuality and Sex Education - What Views Shall We Hold?"

The professor has been associated with 10 national organizations devoted to the study of marriage and family life, sex information, mental health and psychology.

The Forum of the Foothills is a group established last year by community leaders associated with various churches in order to present a series of lectures and discussions on subjects of current interests.

Other speakers slated to appear before the Forum in the future include William G. Pollard, on Jan. 12. Pollard will talk on "Man On A Spaceship".

Blind Persons To See Space Age Program

The Lemon Grove Lions Club, along with the Spring Valley Lions Club are aiding in the sponsorship of an exhibit for the blind concerning space flight history.

The joint venture, telling the story of man's venture into space is being presented to blind persons throughout the county, through a special designed exhibit keyed to the sense of touch.

Called, "Enlightenment For The Blind", the exhibit was assembled by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) in collaboration with representatives of agencies concerned with education for the blind.

The final product is now on national tour and will be at the Aerospace Museum, Balboa Park for five weeks, beginning Jan. 8.

The display consists of five sections in which scale models, relief maps, diagrams and figurines are touched as the visitors move in measured sequence guided by brailled labels as a recorded narration tells the story of flight from the Wright Brothers to the astronauts.

Taking ten minutes for each section, time is allowed for tracing the outlines of relief maps, diagrams, and space hardware and forming imagery of their configuration, size and relationship.

Blind persons wishing to attend the exhibit should contact the Blind Recreation Center at 298-5021 for reservations.

Lights Go On As County Celebrates

Thousands of colored lights will glow throughout San Diego County all year 1969 to show that San Diego is celebrating her 200th birthday.

The lighting program, sponsored by the San Diego 200th Anniversary, Inc., already involves many buildings and residences who have decorated for Christmas.

"The Warm Lights of Welcome Program is an extension of holiday season decoration," according to Hugh A. Hall, celebration director of the 200th.

New Year's Poem

As The World Turns
by Conrad Goyeneche
If he is a man
And if she is a woman,
That's all it takes
To make the world go around.

The rest are only decorations
To create attraction,
To shoot high,
To reach the sky.

All comes wrapped up in mystery,
Pain, joy, madness and gladness,
Love and hate,
For in time to go away.

Their memories fall
In a hollow jar,
No more ambitions,
No more distress.

FINAL STAGES: Robert A. Weeks (left) and Noel Hanson (right) are shown as they go through the final stages in the $360,000 housing development being built by the R. A. Weeks Construction Co., at 7295 North ave., Lemon Grove. The complex will house 24 units, all in the townhouse style. Weeks said that units will be made available for occupancy starting January 10. The project started May 8, Wolfe-Woods and Associates, 8500 Broadway, Lemon Grove, was architect for the project.

Telephone Company Plans $2 Million Program For Heartland Area Communities

Pacific Telephone today announced plans to spend in excess of $2 million in the El Cajon-La Mesa-Spring Valley area in 1969.

The $2,367,000 budgeted for construction in this area is part of a $39.5 million overall construction program for San Diego and Imperial Counties.

The company plans to spend $360,000 on switching equipment for its central office in El Cajon and another $551,000 for outside plant construction (telephone lines) in El Cajon. Nearly $700,000 will be spent on land, building and equipment for an addition to the La Mesa central office at 4711 Spring st. The company also has budgeted $187,000 for outside plant construction in La Mesa.

Lakeside telephone facilities will be improved to the tune of $179,000, while $98,000 is scheduled to be spent in San tee.

Improvements amounting to $73,000 are scheduled in Alpine.

The projection for Pacific Telephone's overall construction expenditures in San Diego and Imperial Counties for the new year represents an increase of $8.5 million over the 1968 figure of $31 million.

W. E. Quirk, vice president and general manager for the Southern Counties area of the company, described the construction program as "moderate." He said that it will just enable the company to keep abreast of San Diego County's population explosion.

Other features of the 1969 planned construction program include $1,855 million for land and buildings; $9,767 million for dial switching equipment; $1,531 million for toll switchboards and related facilities; $12 million for general equipment and $14.3 million for telephone apparatus (switchboards, telephones, etc.).

Quirk said that $83.9 million will be spent by Pacific Telephone in improving facilities in the six counties included in the Southern Counties area that he administers. These counties, for which San Diego is headquarters, are Inyo, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial and San Diego.

MAJOR CONSTRUCTION PROGRAMS

Two major construction projects are planned for the metropolitan San Diego area.

The first involves a $2,566 million addition to the company's office at 9th and C streets. The 12,400 square foot one-story structure, with basement, will house electronic switching equipment.

The second major project calls for a 5,900 square foot addition to the company facility at 4012 37th st. Total cost of land, structure and switching equipment has been placed at $1,085,000.

Quirk said that the company plans to add additional switching equipment to each of its offices in metropolitan San Diego to "keep up with burgeoning demands."

He added that nearly $800,000 worth of equipment will be installed at the company facility at 3848 7th ave., and "that is just typical of the type of thing we will be doing during 1969."

Expenditures will not be confined to the metropolitan area alone, Quirk explained.

Additional switching equipment, valued at $363,000 will be installed at the Garnet Test Center in Pacific Beach, while a similar amount will be spent on equipment for the central office in Chula Vista.

Major expenditures also are planned for Northern San Diego County, Quirk said.

A half-million dollar plant service center will be constructed on Mission ave. in Oceanside. Approximately $250,000 has been allocated for additional switching equipment for a facility at 111 No. Freeman st.

In Escondido, $462,000 will be spent on switching equipment for the company's facility at 146 So. Broadway.

Quirk also pointed to the fact that mid-way 1969, some 1270 Pacific Telephone employees, currently housed at various locations in San Diego, will move into new area headquarters in the Union Bank Building at Sixth and "B" streets in San Diego.

EMPLOYEES MOVE

Telephones employees will occupy from the seventh through the 19th floors of the ultra-modern building that lends grace and beauty to San Diego's skyline.

While a large program has been planned for 1969, Quirk explained that much also has been accomplished during 1968.

"We filled a critical need during the past year with the completion of a new three-story building at 3848 Seventh ave. The new facility, which houses a switching center and additional long distance facilties, has eased the burden on other outlets," Quirk said.

Cost of the project, he added, came to $3,891,000.

In reviewing the past year, Quirk noted that $1.3 million had been spent for land and buildings; $5.6 million went for cables and line ($4.1 million in underground cable facilities); $6 million was spent on central office switching equipment and a whopping $18.2 million was funneled into the purchase of switchboards, telephones and other equipment.

The telephone executive also stopped to reflect on the economic impact made upon San Diego by Pacific Telephone.

"In 1968, we provided employment for 5,580 persons in San Diego County and the company payroll in the San Diego Division approximated $41 million, an increase of more than 8 per cent."

Quirk also took note of the fact that as a company, Pacific Telephone's fiscal year 1968-69 tax payment to San Diego County amounted to $7,982,458.60.

Other statistical figures that Quirk deemed "pertinent to the growth of both the company and the area it serves" include a sharp increase in the number of telephones in San Diego and Imperial Counties.

INCREASE IN CALLS
 "A year ago this date, there were 744,000 telephones in service, but today that figure has climbed to 803,000," Quirk said.

The increase in the number of phones has been accompanied by a greater number of calls.

There were 46,595,000 long distance calls placed in 1968, an increase of 15.2 per cent while local calls number 1,161,374,000, an increase of 5.9 per cent.

"It is evident that 1968 was a year of growth for both San Diego and Imperial Counties. And from every indication 1969 promises to offer even greater growth challenges for our company."

We will make every effort to meet and exceed those challenges," Quirk concluded.

SHERIFF'S NOTEBOOK

Shooting Mars Yule Holiday

Christmas day, marking the birth of Christ, was the day of death for another man. He was George Sidney Weir, 36, of 1165 Woodside ave., Lakeside who was shot to death in Lemon Grove.

Weir was struck by a bullet in the left chest area around 7 p.m. on Dec. 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Lajeunesse, 1817 Dartmoor dr., Lemon Grove.

Lajeunesse is being held in county jail on suspicion of murder. He was arrested in his home shortly after deputies arrived at the scene.

Both men had been employed by United Steel and Shipbuilding Co., National City. It is believed that the two got into an argument prior to the shooting.

During the scuffle, it is believed that the two went for different weapons. Weir, a .22-caliber rifle and Lajeunesse, a .38-caliber revolver.

At the time of the shooting, there were five witnesses in the kitchen room where the incident took place.

In other sheriff's notes,

Robert LeRoy Williams of 8914 Fredrick, Spring Valley reported the loss of a skill saw valued at $40 from his car.

The saw was taken sometime during the past month.

Melvin G. Landers, 762 Lawford st., Lemon Grove, has some $16 worth of gas taken from his car. The gas was siphoned. The gas cap was also listed as missing.

Charles R. Mahern, 7445 Pacific, Lemon Grove told of a fatal case that someone slashed the convertible top of his 1967 Thunderbird auto while it was parked at 3521 Imperial, L.G. last week.

The John Murphy Construction Co., Leeland and Jamacha rd., Spring Valley found that one of its graders had been damaged when some one put dirt in the crackcase.

Damage to the machinery has been set at $150.

Someone broke into the photography room at Mt. Miguel High School and took some $175 in photographic supplies from it. The break took place Dec. 26.

Close to $165 in loss and damage was sustained to a set of golf clubs owned by Robert A. Wright, 2123 C. Carra la, Spring Valley recently someone took two drivers and a set of irons so that they could not be used.

Sherry A. Santos, 7465 Pacific, Lemon Grove, lost a four-track stereo, along with two speakers from her apartment on Dec. 21. Estimated loss of the theft has been set at $100.

James A. Hays, an employee of Thrifty Drug Store 3275 Imperial, Lemon Grove lost $360 in twenty dollar bills while in the process of making a deposit at the Lemon Grove branch of the Bank of America.

Hays had set the roll of money on the teller's ledge. It then went to another part of the bank to respond to a telephone call. When he returned the money was missing.

William I. Whiteside, 716 La Presa, Spring Valley, told officials that someone took his stereo tape recorder valued at $200 from his garage area. The case is under investigation by officials.

Communities Move Step Closer In Fire Communications Link

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley have moved a step closer to developing an emergency fire communications system.

The system would allow both communities, along with 30 other fire departments in the county, communicate with each other with ease in case of a major disaster.

The Board of Supervisors has approved the development of a countywide emergency communications system that would tie together the 32-fire fighting agencies in the county.

The supervisors also assured fire chiefs that $94,000 would be available for the communications system after a majority of the fire departments and districts had agreed to join in the emergency network.

Lemon Grove would be required to spend around $11,700 and Spring Valley some $13,100 to update equipment to tie in on the system.

Fire Chief H. L. Hensley of Lemon Grove said that he will approach the board of directors of the department on Jan. 13 asking for appropriate action.

Financial arrangements or agreements must be made at that time. The department could either borrow money, use money from the tax fund or go in with the county on a lease-purchase basis.

The same holds true for Spring Valley. They have the same options. Frank Berger, fire chief there said that he will discuss the matter with his board of directors on Jan. 30.

Both Lemon Grove and Spring Valley are currently members of the Heartland Mutual Aid Fire Agreement. This means that along with La Mesa, El Cajon, Santee and Lakeside the departments pool their equipment on a major fire.

They all have the same problems... that of communications. When units must be moved individual contact must be made.

Under the county system, transmitters would be placed on mountain tops using a common frequency for emergency purposes.

Local fire departments on call in other communities would only have to switch over to the second frequency for radio contact.

An example of the problems that the fire departments currently face was seen during the dry season when both Lemon Grove and Spring Valley experienced a rash of grass fires.

LOSS OF CONTROL

Lemon Grove can not have radio contact with Spring Valley fire equipment. The two fire chiefs of both communities would get together at a vantage point with their two vehicles parked side by side.

When they wanted to move equipment the fire chiefs would have to contact their own equipment respectively. If the two leaders had to be separated they would lose control of mutual equipment.

In all, some $151,000 would have to be spent by various fire departments for new equipment. El Cajon would have to spend $17,500; La Mesa, $13,750; while Lakeside would have to expend $13,300.

Robert C. Dent, supervisor heading up the committee which looked into the communications problem said that the county would act as the coordinating point in the emergency system.

The county already has equipment being used for public works and other agencies that could also be used by fire officials. Only the mountain top transmitters would be needed for the county to swing into action.

Supervisor Dent said, "All that is needed now is for the local agencies to approve the expenditures to get in on the program. We are ready and are now awaiting for their decision."

Earlier, fire chiefs from various agencies in the county approached the supervisors. Now they must go to local leaders for final approval for the program.

otics-offenders' laws to the extent that the criminal-pusher is presumed innocent beyond reasonable doubt and operates with almost complete impunity.

Equally frustrating is that we have proper laws on the books that would prevent this heart-breaking situation if the courts would invoke them. But the Supreme Court, in its abject stupidity, sets judicial policy and has ordained that over-protection be given the criminally charged while the injured has to prove his case with little protection or help.

Laws now in existence could take the pusher out of society today. But courts fear some hapless pusher may be tried in innocence. No one seems concerned about the futility and frustration of the arresting officer or of the heartbreak of the narcotics victim's family.

And while this fearsome judicial misjudgment goes on, we have brought to manhood a generation of those who are suffering permanent brain damage and horrendous psychological changes from marijuana, LSD, methedrine and other hallucinatory and narcotic substances.

A light on the horizon is the effort of District Attorney James Don Keller, in a weekend move. Keller, who should be awarded a niche in law's Hall of Fame for his continuing battle against narcotics activities in San Diego County, has gotten agreement at the Federal level to revitalize a 1937 marijuana tax law.

Local Internal Revenue Service officials have agreed to attempt to collect the $100 an ounce tax from anyone in possession of marijuana.

This would add one more obstacle in the path of the casual or experimental young user but it would not put the pusher out of business. He would still enjoy the same immunity but his cost of doing business would rise.

To revoke this immunity we must rise against our courts and demand that they use the penal code teeth now in existence in our narcotics laws.

Narcotics sales and use must be stopped!!

For a nation that solved the mysteries of nuclear fission and the problems of lunar orbit, it is unbelievable that the narcotics problem couldn't be solved — and solved right now!!

For one thing, the President could recognize it for the national disgrace that it is and order it eradicated from our 50 states post haste. It could be done without additional governmental expense by using the funds that are being squandered on some of the senseless sociological programs that presently help no one.
